23

Figure 15 C

Notice that The low E string has an X in the open position. This means that this string does not get played at all in this chord.

Common Tones

Notice that when switching from E minor to C, the second finger plays the 2^{nd} fret of the D string in both chords. Make sure you keep this finger down when switching chords. Lifting it will only create more work on your part!

